The Coaching Club.

The Coaching Club met yesterday on the Madison Avenue side of Madison Square and took their first drive of the season. Coaching being rather a novelty in this country the meet attracted a mass meeting in the square, much to the disgust of the gray coated guardians of that resort of nursemaids and perambulators. For once in their lives they found acrive duty they will, if worthy of independence of sentiguarding the grass plats from the tramp of the ment, stamp such action with their condemns ruthless invader, who evinced a total disregard tion. I shall, if elected, admit the country's ruthless invader, who evinced a total disregard of the city ordinances. The crowd commenced to gather about half-past three, and by the time the coaches were drawn up in line there must have been at least 1,500 spectators, ranged ten tive, but I wish to know I am beaten fairly by and twelve deep, on the eastern side of the the people, and not to be crowded out by a ring, square. The Union League Club balcony was on a false pretence. crowded with the members of the club, and every available stoop was occupied by the curious public. It was a remarkably respectable a:semblage, for as a rule deadhead spectacles are usually patronized by the rough element; but on the resignation of Capt. W. H. Fow.e. If nomithis occasion 75 per ct. of the spectators belonged to upper-tendon. Awaiting the commencement of the entertainment the spectators were favored with an impromptu parade of dogearts and tandem, T carts, Stanhope and mail pice tons and equestrians, and it looked as if there was to be a general exhibition of the equip e myself a candidate for the office of City Ser race. A few minutes before four p. m. tie geant-subject to the action of the Conservative patience of the crowd was rewarded as Mr. party in convention or primary election.

Why lay the Presiden of the club cape ap 4-td JOHN W. CAMPBELL. Wm. Jay, the Presiden of the club, came down Madison avenue, and, after moving as far as Twenty third street, turned around and drew up under the windows of the Union League Club. Mr Jay drove a soul loking team of bays, about sixteen hands, the wheeers a shade darker than the leaders. The coach was of the regular English build, the upper half painted black, the lower yellow, and red wheels. Mr. Frederick Bronson arrived about Mr. Bronson was also driving a bay team to a dark blue coach, with red wheels. Mr. Dethe same time and drew up behind Mr. Jay. lancey Kane was the next arrival, tooling a election. This announcement is made subject scratch team, comprising bay leaders and dapple brown wheelers. The coach—of the latest English pattern—was dark blue on top, with a bright vellow body and wheels. The toot of a shifty to the discharge of the legitimate duties a shifty to the discharge of the legitimate duties a shifty to the discharge of the legitimate duties. bright yellow body and wheels. The toot of a horn announced the arrival of Mr. Leonard Je rome, driving a clever looking, well matched bay team to a dark blue coach, with red wheels. Mr. Jerome looked perfectly at home on the box and handled the ribbons as if he understood what he was about. The next arrival was a neat looking English coach, drawn by a showy looking chestnut team, the wheelers about sixteen bands and the leaders a trifle smaller, somewhere in the neighborhood of 152. The off leader had rather a funny knee action, throwing out his right fore foot in rather an unnatu-The last arrival, Mr. William P. Douglas, the Secretary of the cub, drove one of the neatest looking coaches in the club. The body was painted dark blue, with bright yellow whicels. Shortly after four p. m. the President, Mr. Jay, turned into Twenty-sixth street, and the string of coaches, six in all, followed close behind. They wheeled up Fifth avenue, which was crowded with carriages of every description, and headed for the Park. The weather was as pleasant as it possibly could be, and nothing could be more eoj yable than the drive through the Park to Stetson's. The drive on the eastern side of the Park was crowded with carriages, and some very neat Stanhopes, dog carts and mail phæ ons were observed. It looked in the Park as if everybody that owned a horse and wagon had contrived to be out on this special oceasion, and the coaches received quite an ovation. They drove as far as St. tsou's and then returned, walking part of the way, so that every one had a good view. Laving the Park they drove down as far as Washington square and then returned to Madison square, where they were dismissed. On the whole, the opening day was a decided success, and the Coaching

One of the coaches in the parade, that driven by Mr. Kane, an experienced manipulator of the ribbons, will commence to make daily trips to Pelham Bridge and return on the 1st of May. Nothing can be pleasanter during the warm summer mooths than a drive on the top of a coach behind a good team and through such a prettily timbered country. It is to be hoped that some other member of the club will follow Mr. Kane's example and put on a coach on the western side of the island, along the Boulevard and through Inwood to Yonkers or some other adjacent spot. Judging from the demand that has already been made for seats in Mr. Kane's coach, there would be no diffi enlty in obtaining plenty of passengers .- N Y.

Club deserve the thanks of the public for the very pleasing exhibition they afforded them

A CARD-TO THE VOTERS OF ALEX-Though I was announced as desiring the nomination for the Legislature long before any one supposed Mr Febrey would be a candidate, or the county would urge a claim, I at once wrote, on seeing his own card, and sent to both papers a card withdrawing my name, which would have been published April 19th, but I withheld it at Mr. Mushbach's request until the circumstances attending Mr. Febrey's candidacy and the claims of the county could be ascertained by him It was my purpose to withdraw, because though I knew the motives of those in this city who were urging Mr Febrey's nomination, yet I knew him to be so good a man that I was willing to step back. But in deference to the wishes of friends who are not satisfied with the manner of his nomination, I remain a candidate, and submit only to the decision of a primary elec tion. My reasons are: That the precense of the county's title to this half term (which was strangely ignored last fall) is a mere sham to cheat her of a whole term in the next election. in the interest of a small set, who assume to regulate all elections in Alexandria, and that Mr. Febrey was persuaded to come out by two or three men, acting without authority of the party, and with the purpose stated. I shall take care to let the people know these facts, and if the Conservative voters see them, as I do, claim in the next election and retire myself, if nccessary to assert it. If beaten by Mr Febrey in a primary election, I shall feel that the city and county will have a most worthy representa

FRENCH'S. "VEXILLO," (For the Flag,)

Or the Improved Method of Playing Croquet. The prettiest and most interesting lawn game ever invented. The players have an additional interest in this game over ordinary croquet, as each one has a flag to secure, making the game far more interesting and exciting. Nothing of Croquet is lost by Vexillo, as the players have all the play that croquet affords with the additional interest of securing their own flags and capturing those of the enemy.

Special attention is called to the INDESTRUCTIBLE CROQUET, with Rubber-face Mallets. A much more scientific game can be played with this style of croquet than any other. as the rubbar face on the madet gives a certain elasticity to the stroke; besides carom shots can be made as in billiards.
